

Arvin Jeeban

Chief Financial Officer (CFO)

Arvin is a Fellow Chartered Certified Accountant (FCCA) with an MBA and 20 years' experience supporting global businesses to deepen their operations in Africa.

As Chief Financial Officer (CFO), Arvin is responsible for CSI Energy Group's financial functions, including corporate, affiliate and subsidiary offices across Africa and is instrumental in leading the organisation's corporate finance strategy.

His career spans more than 20 years of varied experience in financial management, offshore trust, business leadership and corporate strategy. Prior to joining CSI Energy Group in 2017, Arvin served as Regional Finance Manager for Allterrain Services, where he supported the company's financial functions to build and managed remote camp across East Africa.

Earlier in his career, Arvin held senior-level positions in offshore companies, including Standard Bank Trust, where he administered off-shore trusts for the bank's sister companies based in Jersey and the Isle of Man, and managed financial reporting and accounting for a portfolio of 200+ clients. Arvin is a fellow of the UK's Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) and a member of the Mauritius Institute of Professional Accountants. He holds a Master in Business Administration (MBA) and is currently undertaking a LLB from the University of London.

Based in Mauritius, Arvin is a true finance passionate. Outside of work, he uses his free time conducting research and analysing stocks listed on the US markets.
